THE HIWAY THEATER

Creepshow
OCT 14 FRI 9:45
Celebrating the 40th anniversary of the ultimate horror anthology. Best selling author and writer Stephen King, joins forces with director George A. Romero to pay homage to '50s horror comics. Featuring five colorful and terrifying tales filled with vengeful cockroaches, feral creatures, "dead" beat dads, and King himself as an alien moss-covered hillbilly.

Corpse Bride
OCT 15 SAT 11:00AM
Johnny Depp voices Victor, a nervous Victorian-era groom who retreats into a forest to practice his vows. When he places his ring on a tree branch, he realizes it is actually the finger of a zombie bride. Thrilled to be finally married, his new spouse lures him into the Land of the Dead to begin their new life. $5 Tickets / Free for Members.

Psycho
OCT 20 THU 7:00
Hitchcock's most notorious movie changed horror films forever. Janet Leigh makes a fateful decision to spend the night at the Bates Motel, run by a peculiar young man and his "mother." Featuring a memorable performance from Anthony Perkins and one of the greatest scenes in film history. Rated R.

Twilight
OCT 22 SAT 7:00
The first adaptation of Stephenie Meyer's supernatural romance saga. TWILIGHT follows the meeting and courtship of high school misfit Bella Swan (Kristen Stewart) and the mysterious Edward Cullen (Robert Pattinson). Bella, who is far from frightened, enters a dangerous romance with her immortal yet angst-y soulmate.

Hopper: An American Love Story
OCT 23 SUN 1:30
Edward Hopper’s work is some of the most recognizable art in America – popular, praised, and mysterious. This film takes a deep look into Hopper’s art, life, and relationships, exploring the enigmatic personality with expert interviews, diaries, and a startling visual reflection of American life.

Straight Line Crazy
OCT 26 WED 7:00
David Hare’s new play is about Robert Moses, the most powerful city planner in New York City history. Ralph Fiennes plays Moses, a charismatic man whose mix of charm and intimidation changed the city forever. Directed by Nicholas Hytner. Captured live at the Bridge Theatre in London.

The Texas Chainsaw Massacre
OCT 28 FRI 9:45
This low-budget screem-fest follows five friends travelling throughout rural Texas who stumble upon an old farmhouse belonging to a chainsaw-wielding lunatic and his murderous family. THE TEXAS CHAINSAW MASSACRE remains unparalleled in the horror genre. Rated R.

The Shining
OCT 29 SAT 7:00
Stanley Kubrick’s horror classic. Jack Nicholson plays an aspiring writer who accepts a position as the off-season custodian at an elegant hotel so he can write undisturbed. But shortly after he settles in with his wife and his young son, the ominous hotel begins to yield its sinister power. The film is filled with one memorable scene after another. Rated R.
